(a) A Passive Non-Financial Entity (NFE) is an entity that is not an Active NFE. An Active NFE must meet certain criteria including:

- Active NFEs by reason of income and assets: Less than 50% of the NFE's gross income for the preceding calendar year or other appropriate reporting period is passive income, and less than 50% of the assets held by the NFE during the preceding calendar year or other appropriate reporting period are assets that produce or are held for the production of passive income. 'Passive income' would generally be considered to include the portion of gross income that consists of:
 - dividends and interest or income equivalent to interest;
 - rents and royalties, other than rents and royalties derived in the active conduct of a business conducted, at least in part, by employees of the NFE;
 - the excess of gains over losses from the sale or exchange of Financial Assets that gives rise to the passive income described previously;

(b) A Controlling Person (or 'beneficial owner') generally refers to any person holding 25% or more in an entity. If no natural person is identified as exercising control of the entity, the natural person who holds the position of senior managing official (e.g. directors) will be the Controlling Person of the entity. If a settlor, trustee, protector or beneficiary of a trust membership holder they are always treated as a Controlling Person of the trust.

settlor of trust

The 'settlor' is the person/entity who established the trust by contributing the initial assets or amount, often called the 'settled sum'.

beneficial owner of trust

A beneficial owner of a trust is the individual(s) who ultimately owns or controls (directly or indirectly) the trust.

This will usually be the trustee where the trustee is an individual and the trust does not have an appointor (i.e. someone with the power to dismiss the trustee and appoint a replacement – a 'protector'). If the trustee is a company and there is no appointor, then the beneficial owner(s) will usually be the person(s) who ultimately owns or controls the trustee company. Where (as is common with family trusts) the trust has an appointor, that person(s), or the individual(s) controlling that company if the appointor is a company, will usually be the beneficial owner(s).
